

General Regulations

Students are expected to abide by the rules of the University and its faculties and to conduct themselves in accordance with accepted standards of good citizenship, honesty, and propriety, and with proper regard for the rights of others. When the University delegates judicial and disciplinary responsibilities to faculty, staff, or student groups, students must abide by their decisions. Of course, students must obey federal, state, and local laws as would any other citizens.

Disciplinary sanctions up to and including expulsion may be imposed upon members of the University community for certain infractions, including by way of example the following:

1. Academic cheating or plagiarism, furnishing false information to the University or to members of the University community, forgery, alteration or misuse of University documents, records, or identification cards, or violation of fire safety regulations; and

2. Acts which are illegal under the law, including, but not limited to, theft; disorderly conduct; computer crime; manufacture, sale, possession, or distribution of illegal drugs, including alcohol; rape; possession or use of firearms or explosive materials; assault or battery; vandalism; reckless endangerment of other persons; unauthorized possession of master keys; and failure to comply with reasonable requests of University officials in performance of their duties.

The above is not an exhaustive list or description of the precise conduct that may lead to discipline, but is intended to be illustrative. Specific policies, rules, and regulations concerning academic and non-academic conduct, and the procedures for addressing violations are available from the deans' offices of the College, the Eastman School of Music, and the School of Nursing.

UNIVERSITY RECORDS

The University policy on student records is available to students and their parents through the Office of the University Registrar.

Reports to Parents

It is the policy of the University to consider all matriculated undergraduate students dependent until the age of 21 unless they formally declare their independence, either at the time of enrollment or subsequently through application to the dean's office of their college.

Unless otherwise directed, reports concerning dependent students will be sent to the parent(s) or guardian(s) at the address designated on the registration materials at the time of enrollment.

If divorced or separated parents wish to receive individual mailings, the student should so advise the registrar's office (College and School of Nursing students, Office of the University Registrar; Eastman School students, the Eastman School Registrar).

Notification of a change of address, or of a change in the designation of the parent who is to receive University mailings, should be made by the student to the appropriate registrar's office.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES AND RULES

A list of publications that fully describe all policies and rules pertaining to University programs is contained in the course schedule published before the start of each term and on the University's Web site. These publications include, for example, an undergraduate course description handbook, the Official Bulletin: Graduate Studies, the UR Here handbook and the College Dean of Students' pamphlet entitled Student Discipline: Conduct Standards, Policies, and Procedures, for undergraduates. Policies and rules for nursing students are listed in the student handbook.

STUDENT COMPLAINT PROCEDURE

Both informal and formal procedures exist to resolve student complaints involving harassment, discrimination, and other issues. Information about such procedures can be obtained from the deans' offices of the College, the Eastman School of Music, and the School of Nursing; from the University Intercrossors; or by contacting the University's Equal Opportunity Coordinator at 24 Wallis Hall, phone 275-9125. More information about complaints can be found in the UR Here handbook and the Official Bulletin: Graduate Studies.
