

UNIVERSITY of ROCHESTER

The Frederick Douglass Institute for African and African-American Studies

After/ Shock:

Haiti, History and the Politics of Newness

Wednesday
February 15, 2012

4:30pm

Hawkins-Carlson
Reading Room
(Rush Rhees Library)

Join us for a discussion on Haiti with past Frederick Douglass
Institute Fellow, Millery Polyne, New York University

Refreshments provided
Free and open to the public

In his recently published book Millery Polyne writes, “the response to the earthquake in Haiti has produced another Pan-American moment within contentious debates between militarism and humanitarianism, and international cooperation, political intervention, and security.”

