

Macintosh OS 10.5 (Leopard) Evaluation

Mac OS X Leopard Software Compatibility Evaluation Summary

Product	Not Supported	Supported	Needs Update	Proposed Update Release
Adobe After Effects for Macintosh	Currently NOT Supported
Adobe Premier for Macintosh	Currently NOT Supported
Adobe Reader 9, CS 4 apps		http://www.adobe.com/support/products/pdfs/leopardsupport.pdf
Cisco VPN Client		Cisco VPN client version 4.9.01.0080 is available on the IT Center website
Disk Warrior 4		Yes
EndNote X2		http://www.endnote.com/enleopard.asp		No ETA
Eudora 6.2.4	Currently NOT Supported			No ETA
FileMaker 9		Client side works generally, server side does have issues. See website	http://filemaker.custhelp.com/	11/19/2007
Mail.app		Yes
MS Office 2004		Yes
MS Office 2008	Currently NOT supported
Now Up To Date			http://forum.nowsoftware.com/	No ETA
Parallels 4.0		http://www.parallels.com/en/support/leopard/
PocketMac for Blackberry		PocketMac for BlackBerry 4.0.20b		No ETA
Real Player 11.x on Macintosh	Realplayer 11.x for OS X 10.5 Intel does not work with C labs			No ETA
Remote Desktop Connection v2.0		Yes
Retrospect 6			http://kb.dantz.com/	11/23/2007
Safari 3.0 and 4.0
Mail.rochester.edu		Yes
NetId		Yes
PeopleSoft		Yes
Sharepoint		Yes
WebConnect to mainframe		Yes
Webmail.ur		Yes
WebRFM
Sophos		Sophos 4.9 functions normally on OS X 10.4; there have been reported functionality issues on 10.5. University IT is investigating these problems. University IT is testing a Sophos upgrade for OS X 10.6, Snow Leopard, released on August 28, 2009.
Tech Tools Pro		Not at this time/ Use the Techtool Disk with your AppleCare	There will be an update to make TechTool Pro compatible with Leopard. We do not know if there will be a charge for the update. MicroMat Inc, Makers of TechTool	No ETA

TN3270		The current version of tn3270 X, 3.2.4, has been tested with the most recent developer seed of Leopard (OS X 10.5) with no apparent problems
--------	--	--	--	--

Last Modified: Friday, August 28, 2009