

University of Rochester
Reporting Form for Conflicts of Interest Related to Research Activities

Name: _____ Title: _____

School/Department(s): _____ Period: _____ annual: Jan. 1, 2010 – present
OR _____ ad hoc or anticipated in the next 12 months*

Due: March 1, 2011 (for annual reporting process)

Purpose: The University of Rochester Faculty Policy on Conflict of Commitment and Interest, and this form, assist faculty members in identifying and managing potential conflicts of interest in their University activities. By reporting and managing financial relationships, the University and its faculty can work together to avoid situations that may appear to compromise their integrity. Completion of this Form also fulfills federal grant requirements for reporting of financial interests in research.

Who Must Complete This Form:

- All University of Rochester salaried faculty members with academic, clinical, or research appointments;
- All University students, post-doctoral fellows, residents and scientists who are principal investigators or co-investigators, or are responsible for the administration, design, conduct or reporting of University research; and
- Any study coordinator or other employee actively involved in negotiation of sponsored research at the University who has a financial relationship with a study sponsor.

Timing:

- Annually: This form must be completed annually and submitted between January 1 and March 1 of each year.
- Upon appointment/hire: New faculty/hires must complete and submit this form within 60 days of joining the University.
- * Updates: This form must be updated and resubmitted when there is a change in activities or financial interests that would change the answers to this form (e.g., establishment of a new financial relationship with an entity prior to accepting a research award from that entity).

Definitions:

- Human subjects research includes obtaining data or specimens identifiable to living individuals for research purposes. It excludes research with non-identifiable specimens.
- Clinical trial – for the purposes of this reporting form, a clinical trial is human subjects research whose purpose is to evaluate the safety and/or effectiveness of a drug, biologic, device, treatment, procedure or other intervention.
- Family members – spouse, domestic partner, dependent children
- Financial interest – anything of monetary value, including but not limited to:
  - salary or other payments for services (e.g. consulting fees, payment for educational lectures, expert witness payments and honoraria);
  - equity interests (e.g. stock, stock options or other ownership interests, but not investments in mutual funds); and
  - intellectual property rights (e.g. patents, trademarks, servicemarks, copyrights, and related royalties).

Background/Assistance: For background on the policy requirements and activities permitted, or if you have any questions about how to complete this form:

- Refer to the Faculty Policy on Conflict of Interest and Commitment.

- If you conduct clinical trials, see also the Medical Center's Guidelines for Managing Faculty Conflicts of Interest in Clinical Trials. You may also contact your Department Chair or the Office of Research and Project Administration.
