

CAMP STAFF

UR head baseball coach, Joe Reina, has finished his 12th season as the coach on the River Campus. Coach Reina has built the program on the belief of developing talent through teaching the proper techniques in all aspects of the game. These same techniques will be taught to each camper in attendance. The camp staff will be made up of other coaches on the UR's coaching staff as well as other college coaches and players.

TOWERS FIELD

In 2012, the Rochester Baseball Program completed a $2.5 million renovation of Towers Field.

CAMP INSTRUCTION

The players at the Top Prospect Baseball Camp will get week long instructions from some of the best baseball people around. We maintain a small staff to camper ratio that will allow each camper to get individual instruction during their time here. Our groups are broken down by age and ability level. We do reserve the right to move players up or down based on the abilities of the group. Our meals are served in our on campus cafeteria and they will be made aware of any allergies that some of our campers and staff may have.

Our day begins with meeting on the field for role call. The morning sessions are dedicated to instruction for specific areas (ie. Pitching, hitting, etc.). Before lunch, our half day campers are dismissed. The afternoon session of camp is made up of instruction, games and even relax time in our newly renovation swimming pool. Day campers will be dismissed at 4:30pm. Extended day and overnight campers will go to dinner. In our evening sessions, we will have a camp talk on specific baseball topics, instruction and night games. We will bring in outside competition to take on camp teams. This is very exciting for our camp players as well as the staff.

I am very excited about our new camp structure. This will allow more time to work with our campers on a this great game.

This camp provides an excellent opportunity for those who have an interested in attending the University of Rochester and playing baseball here as well.
