R Pre-Season Outlook

2009 Yellowjacket Baseball

The 2008 Team were regular season Liberty League champions, but goals for the '09 season look to be much higher.

The 2008 season marked a record season for University of Rochester baseball. 28 wins set a season record for the Yellowjackets program who also gathered a first ever regular season Liberty League Championship. For the eight returning seniors and 17 letter-winners, the 2009 season is a chance to set more benchmarks and tradition for years to come.

The Yellowjackets return three of four conference starting pitchers in Blair Veenema (Sr.), Mike Park (Sr.), and Steve Guzski (Jr.) as well as Luke Brocks (Jr.), Chris Olsen (Sr.), and Paul Toland (Sr), who all made starts in 2008. With sophomores Ned Chanatry and Mike Wexler looking to improve on their rookie seasons and a good group of freshman, the bullpen looks to be strong again.

Depth is the name of the game for the U of R infield. Despite the loss of SS and leader Ed Kahovec, they look to reload instead of fill in. Nate Stein (Jr.) will likely make a smooth transition to short stop leaving second base to be manned by Jay Jay Vanderstyne (Sr.) or one of a couple of very talented freshman. Third base will again be held down by Blayne Fuke (Jr.) and first base by senior leader Dan Brien. Don't be surprised to see many new freshman names cracking the lineup and pushing for at bats.

The outfield will miss the departure of Dave Kloc, but returns two award winners in leadoff hitter Andy Cannon (Jr.) and breakout newcomer Matt Francis (So.). Look for Dom Caruso (Fr.) to win the job in right field or other versatile players to fill in.

Ryan Sullivan (Sr.) is back behind the plate, but with his emergence as a relief pitcher watch for Steven Just (So.), Casey Storme (Fr.), and Dan Piehler (Fr.) to earn a lot of time.

Finally, Vanderstyne and Just look to be the front runners for the DH spot. Alex Parker (Fr.) may see many at bats with the size and strength to hit the ball out of the park.

This is by far one of the deepest teams U of R has had in recent history, and everybody is ready to contribute. With solid focus and consistent performance the Yellowjackets should be the team to beat in 2009.
