Session II July 13-17, 2009

PROGRAM

The University of Rochester Basketball Camp is designed to teach and drill campers in individual and team fundamentals of basketball.

Campers will be grouped by age and ability.

Instruction in fundamentals will be based on the skill level of group. Emphasis will be given to drills and skills that campers can practice at home.

Competition will also be grouped by age and ability. Competition will include individual skill contests as well as 3v3 and 5v5 games.
