Jim Scheible, Head Coach, Camp Director

Coach Scheible will be entering his eleventh year this fall as head coach of the University of Rochester Women's Basketball Program and his 22nd overall as a coach at the collegiate level. After guiding the Yellowjackets to their second consecutive ECAC Upstate NY Championship in 2002, he led the 2003 and 2004 squads to unprecedented success. The 2003 team (24-6 record) and 2004 team (25-5 record) both reached the NCAA Final Four. In addition, the 2004 and 2008 teams owned the #1 ranking in the country for multi-week runs. For three straight seasons (2006, 2007 and 2008) the Yellowjackets returned to the NCAA Championship and made the "Sweet Sixteen."

Prior to coming to Rochester, Coach Scheible led Elmira College to consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament, including a trip to the "Sweet Sixteen" in 1998. He also directed Clarkson University to a 22-4 record as an interim head coach in 1989-90 and served two years as an assistant coach at UC San Diego from 1990-92.
