Get U of R credit for participating in archaeological fieldwork in Bermuda or Italy!

Learn historical archaeology in Bermuda working on 17th- and 18th-century house sites. Be a part of a five-week field school in St. George’s, Bermuda, which will train you in archival research and field excavation methods while we use a 400-year-old colony as our extended classroom. No archaeological experience is needed to take the 6-credit HIS 299 course. Advanced students can also develop specialized supervision, GIS, 3D modeling, and artifact identification skills.

…Or join the month-long San Martino Archaeological Field School in Torano, Italy and get first-hand experience excavating at an archaeological site with remains from the prehistoric, Roman, and medieval periods. Included are guided visits to museums and sites in Rome and elsewhere in central Italy. This program also offers you the opportunity to experience the people, culture, and food of Italy off the beaten tourist path. 6 hours of course credit in Classics or Religion. No knowledge of Italian or previous experience is necessary.

INFORMATION SESSION
Wed. 11 February 5:30-6:30 PM, Goergen 109

Further information, contact:
Prof. E. Colantoni (elizabeth.colantoni@rochester.edu) for the program in Italy or Prof. M. Jarvis (michael.jarvis@rochester.edu) for the program in Bermuda