Quick Tips for Submitting CPP Grant Proposals
(UR Undergraduates)

➢ Review and reflect on the Communal Principles definition of Honesty prior to writing proposal.

Honesty and personal integrity are fundamental to all assumptions of participation in a community dedicated to the advancement of knowledge. Honesty advances our efforts as well as strengthens the interrelationships on which community is built. On the other hand, dishonesty undermines the search for truth and undermines the bonds between the persons who live, study, and work here. It further damages community by wasting the energy and educational opportunities of all involved.

➢ You must go beyond the use of the word honesty in the written proposal. Consider the follow questions:
  o How does the proposed program enhance and/or promote honesty in the University of Rochester community?
  o Who will this program impact?
  o How will the program’s audience/participants engage in the program and understand the value of honesty?
  o What will be the long-lasting effects of this program?

➢ Programs or activities of a collaborative nature are strongly encouraged. Collaborations can be a combination of students, faculty and staff or collaborations among organizations.

➢ Preference will be given to proposals that exhibit a need for assistance with costs related to speaker or program content vs. food/refreshments.
