

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Gayle Jagel, University of Rochester, Office of Special Programs, (585) 275.2344, gayle.jagel@rochester.edu

THREE NON-TRADITIONAL UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER STUDENTS RECEIVE OUTSTANDING ADULT SCHOLAR AWARD

Rochester Area Colleges Continuing Education Association Holds 19th Annual Awards Banquet

ROCHESTER, N.Y., April 12, 2005 – Three University of Rochester Students will be presented the Rochester Area Colleges Continuing Education Association (RACCE) award, which recognizes adult students from 10 area colleges who have excelled academically while successfully combining their college careers with other commitments to family, job, career, and the community.

Howard Allen, student at the William E. Simon Graduate School of Business Administration, Tamala David, student at the School of Nursing, and Ruth Anne Queenen, student at the Margaret Warner Graduate School of Education and Human Development will receive their awards at the 19th Annual RACCE Awards Banquet on Wednesday, April 13 at The Lodge at Woodcliff.

“I am thrilled to personally recognize the University of Rochester recipients. It will be an honor to highlight their accomplishments and present their awards,” said Marcy Kraus, Associate Director of the Office of Academic Support at the University of Rochester.

Carol Silver Elliott, President and CEO of Career Development Services and master of ceremonies will head the event and honor all three recipients from each of the participating schools; The University of Rochester, Roberts Wesleyan College, Empire State College, Alfred State College, St. John Fisher College, Finger Lakes Community College, Monroe Community College, Suny Brockport College, Nazareth College, and the Rochester Institute of Technology.

Cocktail hour begins at 5 p.m. followed by dinner at 6 p.m. and the awards presentation ceremony at 7 p.m. For more information call the University of Rochester Office of Special Programs at (585) 275-2344.

###