1) Doors open at 6:30 pm for dinner. Each team will be assigned one table. Competition will begin promptly at 7 pm.

2) The Trivia Competition will consist of 99 questions: 9 categories with 11 questions in each category. Questions will be read twice. Each question is worth one point. In the case of a tie, each team will need to select a representative for a lighting round to break the tie.

3) Maximum team size is 3 persons. If you are smart enough to go with less...so be it! Once a player has left the competition they will not be allowed to rejoin until the completion of the current round of questions.

4) Pre-competition things to do:
   a) Select a captain for your team. This person will be responsible for turning in your answer sheets.
   b) Write your team name and number on each of the Answer Sheets on your table.

5) Correct spelling on the answer sheets is not required, however, answers must be legible and the judges must be able to easily recognize your answers. More than one answer per question will automatically be scored as incorrect.

6) You will have three minutes between rounds to turn in your sheets to the proper judge assigned to your team.

7) No outside food, snacks or drink will be allowed into the Pod. Pizza, snacks and soft drinks will be available during the evening.

8) There will be one intermission after round 4.

9) There is no polling the audience and no phone a friend. Resource materials and electronic devices (computers, cell phones, PDAs, etc.) are strictly prohibited at the tables. Should it be necessary for you to use your cell phone for a call, you are asked to leave the room and will not be permitted re-entry until the end of that round.

10) Judges will post team scores for all to see at the end of each round. The judges' committee has the final say on any disputed answers.

12) Keep your team discussions to a low roar unless you want the neighboring team to eavesdrop. Or discuss loudly the wrong answers and hope they WILL be eavesdropping. Anything goes. Team taunting is definitely allowed. And most importantly...HAVE FUN!!!

Judge’s decisions will be final!
