

The Singer Prize for Excellence in Secondary School Teaching

Nominations are due December 16, 2016

Complete this form and use your mail program to attach it along with your nomination description to your message.

The nomination description should identify the teacher you would like to nominate and describe the ways in which that teacher has been influential. There is no specific requirement for the length of the supporting information. One to two pages should suffice (200-400 words).

Student Information

Name: _____

Email: _____

Phone Number: _____

Teacher Information

A committee of faculty members and students not from the senior class will review completed nominations. Finalists for the award will be contacted and asked to submit additional supporting information. Based on that information, the committee will select a maximum of four winners.

You may submit this nomination form via email and attach your nomination description to your email, or print it out and return it to Richard Feldman, Dean of the College, 317 Lattimore Hall.

The University is pleased to have this opportunity to recognize the contributions of outstanding high school teachers and is grateful to Paul Singer, '66, whose generous support has made possible the Singer Family Prize for Excellence in Secondary School Teaching.
