

Meliora Weekend

October 8–11

Signature Programs

Steven Chu '70, '98 (Honorary), United States Secretary of Energy and co-winner of the 1997 Nobel Prize for Physics, will give this year's keynote address on October 10. (SOLD OUT)

Dedication of the Edmund A. Hajim School of Engineering and Applied Sciences on October 9 and 10, includes the inaugural Hajim Symposium on Engineering, a panel discussion on entrepreneurship, and a reception for engineering alumni and students on Friday, October 9, from 2 to 6:30 p.m.

Other Highlights

George Eastman Statue Dedication and Reception—Celebrate the legacy and leadership of the University's greatest benefactor, George Eastman, with the unveiling of a statue in his honor.

Presidential Perspectives on the University of Rochester Today—President Joel Seligman provides an update on the University today and the future roles it will play in education, research, discovery, and the Rochester community.

The Future of Music: A Discussion with Eastman Dean Douglas Lowry and the Ying Quartet—Dean Lowry and the Ying Quartet, the Grammy Award-winning resident string quartet at the Eastman School, will discuss the rapidly changing world of music.

The Future of Medicine: An Expert Diagnosis—Moderated by Mark Taubman, acting CEO at the Medical Center, this panel discussion will focus on the complex issues facing medicine today.

Presidential Symposium on Great Issues of the 21st Century: The Future of Financial Regulation—Trustee Hugo Sonnenschein '61 will host a panel of finance and economics experts about restructuring financial regulation in the United States.

The 2009 Stanton/Anthony Conversations—Mothers as Leaders: Contradictions and Challenges—The conversations are cosponsored by the Susan B. Anthony Center for Women's Leadership and the Center for Entrepreneurship.

Academic lectures, open house events, reunion class dinners, entertainment, and more!

Visit www.rochester.edu/melioraweekend for details on all Meliora Weekend events and to register.

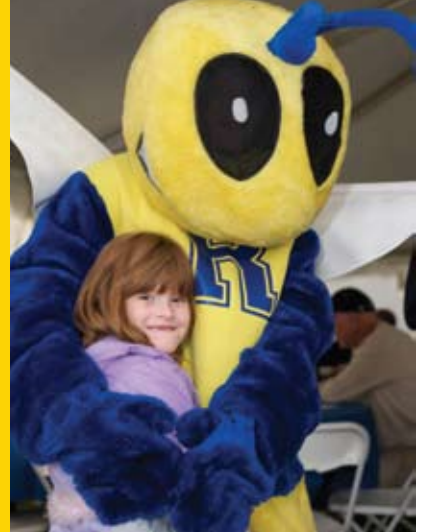

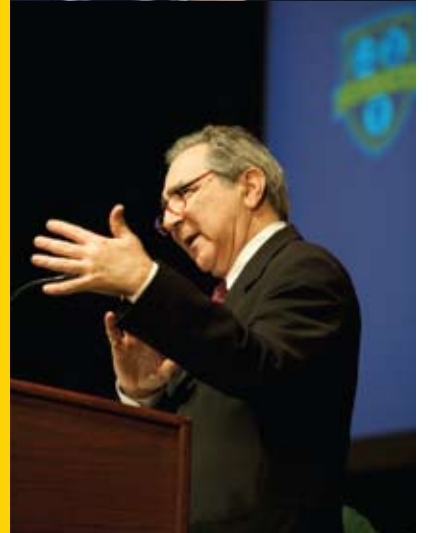

Photo of George Eastman from Kodak Historical Collection #003, Department of Rare Books and Special Collections.