Eastman Celebrates the Musical Legacy of Gerry Niewood

The first jazz concert in Kodak Hall at Eastman Theatre will celebrate the life and music of late saxophonist Gerry Niewood, a Rochester native and Eastman alumnus. On Wednesday, Oct. 14, at 8 p.m., special guests and jazz greats Chuck Mangione, Lew Soloff, and Pat LaBarbera will join the Eastman Jazz Ensemble, directed by Bill Dobbins, and the Eastman New Jazz Ensemble, directed by Dave Rivello, for a benefit concert for the Gerry Niewood Memorial Scholarship Fund at the Eastman School. Niewood toured with Mangione's bands among many others, and was one of New York's most prominent studio artists. Also performing will be Gerry's son Adam, a rising star on the New York City jazz scene. For more information, check the online events calendar.

Noted Mexican author to visit

Jorge Volpi, Mexico's top-selling author, will be on campus for a reading and discussion on Season of Ash, translated by Alfred MacAdam. The event starts at 6:20 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 20, in the Hawkins-Carlson Room of Rush Rhees Library. The talk is part of Open Letter's Reading the World Conversation Series. Read more at openletterbooks.org.
