

2008-2009 PHELPS COLLOQUIUM SERIES

Celebrating Multi-disciplinary Scholarship at Rochester

September

Are We Any Closer This Time? The Century-Long Struggle for a Universal National Health Program in the United States and What It Can Teach Us”

Theodore Brown, History and Community & Preventive Medicine

Getting the Picture (Preserving the Picture, Studying the Picture): Collaborations between UR and George Eastman House

Thomas DiPiero, Senior Associate Dean of Humanities, The College, and Patrick Loughney, George Eastman House

Thursday, September 18, 11am – 1pm, Bausch & Lomb Parlor, Memorial Art Gallery

October

Election 2008 Roundtable

Stuart Jordan, Bonnie Meguid, and Valeria Sinclair-Chapman, Political Science

Moderator: Gerald Gamm, Political Science

Friday, October 31, 11am - 1pm, LeChase Assembly Hall, G-9576, Medical School

December

Music and Language: The Speech Cadence of American Jazz Masters Jelly Roll Morton and Louis Armstrong

Harold Danko, Jazz Studies, and Joyce McDonough, Linguistics

(Mis)Adventures in Tech Transfer

Kevin Parker, Electrical & Computer Engineering

Friday, December 5, 11am - 1pm, Hawkins-Carlson Room, Rush Rhees Library

January

If I Only Had a Heart -- Transplantation Issues in Movies

Richard Demme, Medicine

Understanding Relationships and the Early Years of Marriage

Ronald Rogge, Clinical & Social Psychology

Thursday, January 22, 11am - 1pm, Eisenberg Rotunda, Schlegel Hall

March

The Future of Organic Electronics

Ching Tang, Chemical Engineering

Wireless Sensor Networks: Connecting the Physical and Virtual Worlds

Wendi Heinzelman, Dean of Graduate Studies, The College

Friday, March 6, 11am - 1pm, The Atrium of Max at Eastman Place

April

Influenza: Is There Cause for Concern?

John Treanor, Medicine

Optics from 3000 BC to 3000 AD

Wayne Knox, Institute of Optics

Thursday, April 16, 11am - 1pm, Hawkins-Carlson Room, Rush Rhees Library