Latinas Unidas Inspirational Leadership Award

The Latino Professional Alliance (LPA) an Employee Resource Group at the University of Rochester would like to congratulate Librada Paz, Technical Associate at the School of Nursing on her Inspirational Leadership Award at the Latinas Unidas 23rd Annual Reconocimiento and Scholarship Awards Ceremony! The Inspirational Leadership Award is given to a Latina who has “Consistently demonstrated outstanding leadership skills which motivate and inspire others to strive for excellence.” On behalf of members of the LPA, we are so proud of Librada's accomplishments!

The mission of Latino Professional Alliance (LPA) at the University of Rochester is to build and maintain a positive work environment and to support the growth and development of Latinos/Latinas. This will be accomplished through networking, mentoring, educational and professional programs, community service, multicultural events, and diversity awareness. Each individual employed at the University of Rochester is considered a professional, and therefore, LPA aims to build an alliance among all employees in our workplace who support LPA’s mission.

For more information about the Latino Professional Alliance, please visit http://www.rochester.edu/diversity/staff/affinity/lpa/