Thank you for your leadership and for your role as a George Eastman Circle Council Member. For your convenience, we have crafted some basic talking points to help out in any conversations you may have about the George Eastman Circle and our impact. We encourage you to share your story as part of these suggested talking points. Of course, these are only a starting point. Feel free to refine and tweak as you wish.

Talking Points:

1. The George Eastman Circle is named after one of the University of Rochester’s greatest philanthropic supporters, George Eastman, the founder of the Eastman Kodak Company and a visionary who helped ensure the future of the University.

2. More than 4,900 George Eastman Circle members have pledged $75 million since January 1, 2007.

3. In San Francisco there are 117 George Eastman Circle memberships, totaling 167 members.

4. George Eastman Circle members invest where they want to personally make a substantial difference. There are literally hundreds of different funds to choose from. You can invest in one, or as many, as you would like.

5. Our membership levels start at $1,500 annually, and require a five-year commitment. For those who have graduated from college in the last decade, we have a special Associate level that financially is achievable for recent grads.

6. Your story. Share with others why you support the University of Rochester through the George Eastman Circle.

George Eastman Circle Advancement Contacts:

Casey Ann Zimny
Director, George Eastman Circle
Office: (585) 276-4659
casey.zimny@rochester.edu

Erin Bory
Associate Director, George Eastman Circle
Office: (585) 275-6603
erin.bory@rochester.edu