

Summer Internship Funding Application Checklist

Prior to applying for summer internship funding, it is recommended you collect all of the information below. You will be able to save your online application and return to it up until you submit it.

- UR Student ID Number: _____
- Country of Citizenship and Work Authorization (if you are an undocumented student please reach out to reach@ur.rochester.edu for additional guidance)
- Your UR Employee ID (if you have previously held a job on campus, can be found in HRMS) _____
- Your summer mailing address (where checks can be sent if direct deposit is not set up):

- If you will be traveling internationally as part of your internship, please check the country you will be visiting against the US State Department's new travel advisory system, this information will be needed for your application. Countries with a level 3 or 4 warning will need additional clearance from the Office of Global Engagement.
- Dates you will be at your experience and the number of hours per week
 - Start Date: _____ End Date: _____ Hours/week: _____
- The organization/company name, mailing address, website, supervisor name, supervisor email, and industry for your experience.
 - Organization/Employer Name: _____
 - Mailing Address: _____
 - Website: _____
 - Supervisor Name: _____
 - Supervisor Email: _____
- Your Estimated Expenses Budget, including
 - Cost to arrive at your experience location (if traveling away from home) _____
 - Cost of daily transportation (commuting) _____
 - Cost of Housing _____
 - Cost of Meals & Personal Expenses _____
 - Other expenses (be prepared to describe) _____
- Estimated additional sources of support, including:
 - Internship Compensation (wages, stipend, transportation card, etc) _____
 - Wages from other work (summer jobs, part-time jobs, etc) _____
 - Other University-based funding (please indicate sources) _____

Summer Internship Funding Application Checklist

Budget Justification: Please describe how you researched each of your estimated expenses, any additional sources of support you'll be utilizing, how you will maximize any funding granted, and any why receiving funding is important in completing this experience. (Limit 500 words)

Career Impact Statement: Please describe your motivation for completing this internship or research experience, the connections you see between this experience and your academic and/or career interests, and how this experience will help you develop career competencies critical for future success. (Limit 500 words)