

Windows 7 Configuration for UR_RC_InternalSecure

	Before Starting, ensure that you have wireless enabled on your computer. To begin the configuration, single click on WiFi icon  from the lower right portion of your desktop
	Select the “UR_RC_InternalSecure” wireless network Ensure that “Connect automatically” is checked Click Connect

Windows 7 Configuration for UR_RC_InternalSecure

	For "Security key", type "URWireless" without the quotes and case sensitive. Click "OK".
	You are connecting to UR_RC_InternalSecure.

Windows 7 Configuration for UR_RC_InternalSecure

 A Windows 7 help balloon with a white background and a blue border. The text inside reads "Additional log on information may be required." in blue, followed by "Click to open your browser" in black. There are small icons for help, close, and a link. The balloon is positioned over a blue taskbar area with several icons.	Click on the help balloon. This will open up your default web browser. If the balloon disappears, manually open your browser. Proceed to the next screen.
---	---

Windows 7 Configuration for UR_RC_InternalSecure

Enter your NetID and password

Click the Login button to complete the connection to UR_RC_InternalSecure.

Now, you are connected to UR_RC_InternalSecure.