

PERCUSSIVE ARTIST

Marimba Master

SOLO SHOWCASE: Tomasz Arnold '13E earned first prize at the Percussive Arts Society's 50th Anniversary International Solo Competition last fall. Part of the society's international convention, the competition featured performances on solo marimba, multiple percussion, and timpani as well as a concerto, with different sets of judges at each round. Arnold, a percussion major from Poland who as a freshman won Category 1 of the 2009 International Marimba Competition, was one of four finalists in the society's solo competition. As the winner, he was featured in the convention's showcase concert. PHOTOGRAPH BY ADAM FENSTER
