

was invited to compete at the Penn Relays in late April in the 10,000-meter run. He is one of a bevy of qualifiers for the ECAC championships, including both the 4-by-100-meter relay (Gene O'Hanlon '14, Anthony Paschke '14, Max Sims '15, and Jeff Hrebenach '16) and the 4-by-800-meter relay (Yuji Wakimoto '14, Ethan Pacheck '15, Minetsinot Kassu '16, and Jeremy Hassett '16).

Women's track & field: The 4-by-400-meter relay (Becky Galasso '14, Brittany Porter '15, Cameron Edwards '16, and Claire Crowther '13) was ranked 10th in Division III after finishing second at the UR Alumni Invitational. The women produced eight ECAC qualifying performances. Besides the relay, the qualifiers were Victoria Stepanova '15 and Jennifer Klemenz '15 in the 10,000, Meg Ogle '13 in the 3,000-meter steeplechase, Galasso in the 400, and Edwards and Crowther in the 400 hurdles.

Women's rowing: With only one senior, the young team was ranked 18th heading into the spring season. In their first race, the Yellowjackets finished behind No. 9 St. Lawrence and Division II's seventh-ranked Mercyhurst, but ahead of RIT. The Novice 4s defeated Ithaca in week two, and in mid-April, Rochester defeated No. 15 Hamilton in the First Varsity Eight race.

In highlights from the winter seasons:

Squash: The Yellowjackets finished fifth in the nation and produced four All-Americans, the most ever in a single season—Andres Duany '13 and Faraz Khan '16 on the first team, Neil Cordell '16 and Adam Perkiomaki '13 on the second team.

Swimming & diving: The women finished fifth at UAAs and the men finished sixth. Divers Sara Spielman '13 and Elliott Lasher '13 competed at the NCAA regional championships at Ithaca.

Indoor track & field: Claire Crowther '13 won the ECAC 500-meter run and broke a school record in the process. Rochester finished 13th out of 50 schools. For the men, Adam Pacheck '14 had the highest individual finish. He was third in the 5,000. The Yellowjackets finished 10th.

Women's basketball: Reaching the second round of the NCAA playoffs, the team finished 20-7 overall, second in the UAA (11-3). Ally Zywicki '15 was named an All-American by the WBCA.

Men's basketball: The team shared the UAA title (10-4) and reached the second round of the NCAAs before finishing at 22-5. John DiBartolomeo '13 was a consensus first team All-American, as chosen by four organizations. R

BASKET OF HONORS: Senior basketball guard John DiBartolomeo was named national Player of the Year by two media outlets and an All-American by four organizations.

ALL-AMERICANS

Yellowjackets Rake in Honors

John DiBartolomeo finished his Yellowjacket basketball career as one of the program's most decorated players. The senior from Westport, Conn., was named national Player of the Year by two media organizations that follow Division III basketball—D3hoops.com and *DIII*News.

Both groups also selected him as a first team All-American, giving DiBartolomeo four first-team selections for the year. Also naming him an All-American were the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) and the U.S. Basketball Writers' Association. DiBartolomeo, who led the 22-5 Yellowjackets in scoring, rebounding, assists, and steals this season, also was named Player of the Year by the University Athletic Association and the Eastern College Athletic Conference (for Upstate New York). He was named the East Region Player of the Year by D3hoops.com and the NABC. DiBartolomeo was a first team honoree by the UAA, ECAC Upstate New York, the NABC, and D3hoops.com.

He was selected to play in the Reese's NABC Division III All-Star Game, and he was named a finalist for the Josten's Trophy, given by the Salem Rotary Club.

DiBartolomeo was one of two Rochester basketball players to earn All-America honors this spring. Sophomore guard Ally Zywicki, of Liverpool, N.Y., was selected as an honorable mention All-American by the Women's Basketball Coaches Association. Zywicki, who led the 20-7 Yellowjackets in scoring, was named first team All-UAA, second team All-ECAC Upstate New York, and first team All-East Region by D3hoops.com.