football team and looks forward to attending the Class of 1963 50th reunion this October.

1965 Gary Noyes '67 (MS) and his wife, Carol, went on a cruise from the French Polynesian island, Papeete, to Lima, Peru. Accompanying the couple on the trip was the University mascot, Rocky. Gary writes: "A highlight was Easter Island. Rocky was duly impressed by all the moai on the island. When in Peru, Rocky had to flap his little wings very hard to get up to the Andes and, unfortunately, had a bit of a problem with the altitude (Cuzco is at 11,000 feet.) Regardless, he found the sights at Machu Picchu to be awe-inspiring. For everyone's sake, no photos of Rocky being sick!"

1968 Alan Lobel '69S (MBA) was a finalist for a Jefferson Award for Community Service in Albany, N.Y. The national awards program was founded in 1972 by Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, Sen. Robert Taft Jr., and Sam Beard, to establish "a Nobel Prize for community and public service," both on the national and local level. Owner of Lobel Food Brokers, Alan retired in 2004. Since then, he's been an activist and fundraiser in efforts to fight hunger, disease, and addiction, and in organizing donations to food banks as well as charity events.

1969 Kathy Rumrich Gilbert writes that she and Paula (Terre) Deerhake Reed '69W collaborated on a children's book, Just Us Chickens (CreateSpace). The text is a poem by Kathy and illustrations consist of paintings by Paula. Kathy earned a master of fine arts

I was also selected as a founding member of the University of Oklahoma College of Medicine Academy of Teaching Scholars." . . . Harriette Russell Trevino has been named community liaison for Waveny Care Network in New Canaan, Conn. Harriette has spent more than 30 years in public relations and marketing, and most recently, as a community service representative for a home health organization, developed a referral partner network among health care facilities and professionals spanning 33 towns.

1980 Gail Schwat Liss has co-authored The College Bound Organizer (Sourcebooks), a step-by-step guide to the college application process that includes tips and worksheets for each step. "It includes a foreword by Edward B. Fiske, of Fiske Guide to Colleges, and a Q&A with admissions professionals," Gail writes.

1981 Randy Otto has co-edited the fourth edition of The Handbook of Forensic Psychology (John Wiley & Sons). Randy is an associate professor in the University of South Florida's department of mental health law and policy.

1984 Bruce Schneier has been awarded a fellowship at Harvard's Berkman Center for Internet and Society for the 2013-14 academic year. A noted security expert and author, Bruce studies the intersection of security, technology, and politics.

1985 Alan Ehrlich writes: "Two Rochester alumni from different eras discovered their connection while in Tijuana, Mexico." Alan and Alex Langley '08 were both volunteers with One Small House, a nonprofit in Putnam

County, N.Y., building homes for needy families. “We posed next to bunk beds we just completed assembling for three of the six children in the family,” Alan writes. “Alex traveled from Brooklyn for the build, while I had a relatively short drive from my home in Pasadena, Calif.”

1988 Jacqueline Lavelle has been named superintendent at Grant-Kohrs Ranch National Historic Site in Deer Lodge, Mont. The site, part of the National Park Service, rests on the site of a one-time cattle empire, and is dedicated to exploring the role of cattlemen in American history. Jacqueline has been with the National Park Service for 22 years.

1990 Jodi Rubtchinsky Smith (see ’89).

1992 Chris Fite has been named head men’s basketball coach at Shippensburg University.

“I’m a member of Rochester Loyal because the University of Rochester created a wonderful opportunity for me to travel to Uganda as a young medical student. In 1972, I took a year out of med school to do research at the Uganda Cancer Institute, which was unheard of at the time. I came back a different person. My experience taught me to listen and understand before making a decision—a lesson I still use today when teaching global health and pediatrics.”
