

SUMMER SCENE

Jumpin' Jazz Street

STAGE PRESENCE: Wendy Eisenberg '14E (left), the guitarist and composer behind Wendy Eisenberg's Earth Science, performs with trumpeter Brandon Choi '16E (right) and other members of her ensemble at this summer's Xerox Rochester International Jazz Festival. Eastman School of Music musicians—students, faculty, staff, and alumni, as well as students and faculty from the Eastman Community Music School—appeared in more than two dozen shows during the festival at venues within a short walking distance of Gibbs Street, which gets renamed “Jazz Street” during the week-long event.
