BRAVO!
Ward Woodbury Winners

FAMILY TRADITION: The Goldstein family of Dunbarton, New Hampshire, is batting .500 when it comes to winning one of the top awards from the Department of Music. During this spring's commencement ceremonies, Molly Goldstein '17 received the Ward Woodbury Award, an annual honor presented by the department to a senior who has demonstrated outstanding leadership and achievement in music. She's the second of four siblings to win the award. She follows her sister, Rebekah '11 (right), who received the honor when she graduated. Their sister, Rachel '13, '14W (MS), was an English major, and their brother, Stuart '19, is a geological sciences major. The Woodbury award is named in honor of the founder of the music department in the School of Arts & Sciences, who also founded the University Symphony Orchestra.
