A call for art
made from

recycled

materials

Now accepting submissions of art made from recycled materials, or with a theme or message regarding environmental sustainability. We encourage any member of the UR community to submit pieces. Please submit inquiries and/or photographs of pieces including dimensions to recyclemaniaart2013@gmail.com by Monday, March 18th. The show will run from March 25th to March 29th in Sage Art Center of the University of Rochester, River Campus, with a reception on the 25th. The show will be juried by UR faculty, as well as special guest Greentopia artist Scott Grove.

Sponsored by the Facilities Green Team and Recyclemania.
