Catherine Farrell

By Jonathan Sherwood

Frontline fighting

In the new model, which replaces the old Community Psychiatric Unit with an Inpatient Psychosocial Program, children are treated in smaller, more intimate units that are housed at Children’s Hospital Medical Center and at River Campus Libraries and Learning Resources. Kathy Metz first joined the library as a part-time employee in 1983, working in the Children’s Hospital Medical Center. She was promoted to full-time work in 1987, and then to director of the Library in 1998. She has received numerous awards for her contributions to the library, including the New York State Library Director’s Award for Excellence in Public Service and the Library Leadership Award from the New York State Library. She has served on a number of committees and boards, and is currently a member of the New York State Library’s Board of Directors.

WITMER AWARD

Lisa Metz

By Sharon Dickman

Newly named director of access services

In 1999, Leo Conley was selected as the director of access services at the Medical College of Georgia. He has been involved in the development of a number of library automation systems, and is currently working on a project to develop a new system for managing electronic resources. He has also been involved in the development of a new electronic resource management system, and is currently involved in a project to develop a new system for managing electronic resources. He has also been involved in the development of a new electronic resource management system, and is currently involved in a project to develop a new system for managing electronic resources.

WITMER AWARD

Lisa Metz

By Sharon Dickman

Newly named director of access services

In 1999, Leo Conley was selected as the director of access services at the Medical College of Georgia. He has been involved in the development of a number of library automation systems, and is currently working on a project to develop a new system for managing electronic resources. He has also been involved in the development of a new electronic resource management system, and is currently involved in a project to develop a new system for managing electronic resources. He has also been involved in the development of a new electronic resource management system, and is currently involved in a project to develop a new system for managing electronic resources.