Preparing for Your Academic Career
Future Faculty Initiative
Workshop Series for the Next Generation of Faculty

This workshop series is for doctoral candidates or post-docs planning a career in academia. Schedule of workshops:

Monday October 18, 2010 (Repeat workshop from April 2010)
12:30-5:30 p.m.
“The Faculty Role”
The faculty role and responsibilities; discipline specific expectations; capitalizing on opportunities to strengthen your vita and prepare for the job market while still at UR

Friday November 19, 2010 (Repeat workshop from May 2010)
12:30-5:30 p.m.
“Innovative Teaching Approaches”
Hands-on experience and assessment of teaching strategies for enhancing student learning, including inquiry-based learning, case discussions, problem-based learning, workshop methods, master lessons, and employing social networking technologies

Friday February 18, 2011
12:30-5:30 p.m.
“The Opportunity in Diversity: Tapping the Multiplicity of Experience”
The faculty role in acknowledging and welcoming the range of differences found on a college campus; race/ethnicity; ability/disability; class; gender; national origin; language proficiency; religious affiliation; sexual orientation

Friday March 4, 2011
12:30-5:30 p.m.
“What is a Mentor and What Good is Having One?”
Mentoring in the university environment; how you can learn to be a mentor or to be mentored; and the art of matching mentors and mentees.

You are encouraged to attend all four workshops, led by faculty and deans from:
- Arts, Sciences and Engineering
- School of Medicine and Dentistry
- School of Nursing
- Eastman School of Music
- Simon School of Business
- Warner School of Education

Registration is required as space is limited. Please register by October 1, 2010 for the series at www.rochester.edu/provost/futurefaculty