

I did not set up multifactor authentication and now I don't know how.

After your third login attempt, you are required to set up multifactor authentication before accessing your Workday account. Please follow the instructions starting at “Multifactor Authentication” in the Complete the steps in email to activate your access to your student's account (first time only) section of this webpage to learn how to setup multifactor authentication.