The Meliora Collective is an innovative online platform that empowers alumni, students, and parents to pursue personal and professional growth. Make meaningful connections with those in your field, your region, and individuals with similar experiences. With advanced tools and features, making the most of the University of Rochester network has never been easier.

Why join?

To expand your connections, become a mentor, or receive and give advice.
Every person brings different experiences to the platform, which over time, contributes to the resources available on The Collective.

Leverage the University’s network.
With more features than LinkedIn—and just for the University of Rochester—use your experiences and connections to build deeper and stronger relationships.

It makes communicating easy.
Arrange meetings, video chat, and send messages within the platform—no need to share your personal contact information—unless you want to.

Getting started is simple.
Sign in using your LinkedIn account to populate your professional information, or use your Facebook login or email address.
Platform features.

Job Board.

Post, browse, or apply for opportunities that are affiliated with members of the University community as hiring managers or referrers. Featuring additional integration with Indeed, the job board is for experienced positions from a variety of industries and companies.

Groups.

Groups are just one way to find connections with a shared interest, background, or to learn from experts in a focused subject area. With dozens to choose from, it’s easy to find one for you.

Filters.

Find members with similar interests or with relevancy to your professional experience who are ready and willing to assist in your development. Use expertise, location, school, help topics, or use your own keywords.

Mentorship.

This University-wide program allows mentors to help alumni and student mentees with their professional development. Mentors provide real-world context, personal insights, and ongoing support to help achieve short and long-term goals over three months.

Global Search.

Take advantage of the unique map feature to find people where you live or where you aspire to be.

Discussion Boards.

Hop on the discussion board to ask or answer any questions related to personal or professional growth. Post articles, blogs, events, and more to engage other members in dynamic conversations.

Michelle Cavalcanti | Associate Director, Career and Professional Affinity Programs
877.MELIORA (877.635.4672) | michelle.cavalcanti@rochester.edu