Join the University of Rochester Travel Club on a thoughtfully-designed, six-night program to London and Bath, hosted by alumna Erica Fee ’98, founding producer of the Rochester Fringe Festival. This unique program will begin in London, one of the world’s great melting pots rich with history and culture. Dive into the theatre capital of the world as we discover London’s West End with behind-the-scenes access to London’s prestigious theatres, and take part in a special private session led by a local producer. Cross the River Thames and trace the footsteps of famous poets and playwrights before visiting the original location of Shakespeare’s Globe Theatre. Admire architectural marvels like the Baroque domes and spires of St. Paul’s Cathedral, and soak in six centuries of history at the National Portrait Gallery. Spend a day at the world-famous Chelsea Flower Show, one of the premier events to take place in London. Travel to Bath on a high-speed train and take part in Bath Festival, which celebrates music and literature while bringing the streets of Bath to life. We will end the program exploring the city, touring the preserved Roman Baths and the limestone buildings that create the city’s gorgeous glow.

Tour Highlights

W e begin the program in London, one of the world’s most iconic cities, taking in its rich culture and history. Visit the Royal Academy of Arts, founded in 1768, it is amongst the most prestigious art institutions in the world. Begin discovering London’s theatre scene with a private tour of West End and get an exclusive, behind-the-scenes tour of one of London’s premier theatres. End the day with a special private session led by a local theatre producer before enjoying a reception attended by local University of Rochester Alumni.

Spend a day at the Chelsea Flower Show, a world-renowned horticulture show and one of London’s most premier events. Stroll through show-stopping gardens, discovering creative floral artworks from around the globe. After dinner, enjoy an optional evening theatre performance.

Cross the River Thames and discover the Bankside district on foot with a local guide where we will hear about the lives of the poets and playwrights who lived there. Stop by the original site of Shakespeare’s Globe Theatre before a behind-the-scenes tour of the reconstructed Globe nearby. Visit the St. Paul’s Cathedral, whose unmissable silhouette on the London skyline is often considered to be Christopher Wren’s architectural masterpiece. Explore the National Portrait Gallery and enjoy dinner at a local restaurant before an optional evening theatre performance.

Take a high-speed train to Bath where we will take part in the Bath Festival events and performances happening across the UNESCO World Heritage Site. The festival curates a thrilling and diverse range of events, bringing international artists and emerging talent to the city.

Enjoy a day at leisure to explore the performances that most appeal to you. Aside from the events of the festival, we encourage you to explore some of the many cultural sites around the city, including The Jane Austen Center or perhaps a visit to the Thermae Bath, and indulge in Britain’s only natural hot springs as the Romans once did.

As a group, discover the famous Roman Baths, one of the best-preserved Roman remains in the world. Enjoy afternoon tea before exploring the beautiful streets of Bath with a local guide. Stroll through the city with its stunning Georgian architecture and marvel at the iconic Royal Crescent and the majestic Circus. Take in the Gravel Walk and Georgian Garden, where Jane Austen found inspiration for her novels. Enjoy a lovely farewell dinner. The group will return to London by train before your independent flights home.

DIFFICULTY LEVEL: MEDIUM. The trip will spend considerable time at performances and museums and will require being able to be on your feet for extended periods of times, walking for 20 minutes or more, and using stairs.
