This summer, companies have highly reduced hiring — fewer jobs provided, international students can’t go back to home — unable on-site. Can we still finish a good internship after all this summer?

In this special time period, internships can also be like this:

2020 JUNIOR UP SUMMER INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

We will also bring you the global live broadcast on internship introduction on May 20th.

Detailed explanations about on-site and remote internship positions from various top companies.
Lockin Junior Up Program
2020 Global Summer Internship Season

No matter on-site or remote internship, it will be very rewarding to you

Lockin has cooperated with more than 1,600 universities around the world to generate the 2020 summer internship season for international students.

Integrate hundreds of well-known employers in China to provide thousands of online and offline internship positions. During the special period, companies adjust the internship content specially after our communication, which is more suitable for overseas remote internship, and ensures that the value of remote internship is the same as on-site ones.
