WHAT IS A WELCOME WEEK VOLUNTEER?

Welcome Week Volunteers (WWV) assist the Office of Orientation and First-Year Programs professional and student staff with event support and help to create and maintain a welcoming atmosphere for incoming students and their families.

WWV RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assist incoming students and families with questions and address any challenges they might have regarding Welcome Week events, wayfinding around the University, connecting with University services, and the Rochester area
- Serve as a representative of the Office of Orientation and New Student Programs, supporting the implementation of activities, programs, and special events during Fall Welcome Week
- Perform other orientation-related responsibilities as requested by the orientation professional staff

APPLICANT QUALIFICATIONS

- Must be in good academic standing (cumulative GPA of at least 2.75) and disciplinary standing
- Must be registered as a full-time student for the Fall 2024 semester
- Must be able to attend Welcome Week Volunteer training and be available to volunteer during Fall Welcome Week (see dates below)

By applying to the role of Welcome Week Volunteer, you consent to allow the orientation professional staff to run certain academic and conduct checks.
