Consortium / Contractual Agreement Instructions 2023-2024 University of Rochester Financial Aid Office

PURPOSE

A consortium/contractual agreement is required each time a student participates in a program or attends courses at another institution, but will remain a matriculated student at UR, receiving financial assistance. University assistance cannot be used for courses at another institution; the most common type of aid processed under a consortium/contractual agreement is loans.

STUDENT CHECKLIST

I here are man	iy steps involved in	completing a co	nsortium/co	ntractual agr	eement; ao not v	wait until the las	t minute to beg	zın
this process.	The steps to comp	olete the agreeme	ent are as foll	ows:

Complete section 1 with your information. Attach a course approval form. Be sure to obtain a CCAS advisor's signature on Section 1A.
Forward the agreement to the Host institution; we advise that you make a copy of the agreement at each stage to avoid redoing the document if it is lost.
The Host institution completes section 2 and their portion of section 4.
Forward the agreement to the University of Rochester's Financial Aid Office for review and completion of section 3 and 4.
Once the completed agreement has been received and reviewed by the Financial Aid Office, we can determine your eligibility for financial assistance and notify the Bursar's Office of where to send any potential refunds.
You must forward a copy of your bill from the host institution to the University of Rochester Bursar's Office consortium agreement.

- Financial Aid Counselors are available to discuss your plans and how your future aid eligibility may be affected by your plans. All students are strongly encouraged to meet with their Financial Aid counselor prior to completing a consortium/contractual agreement.
- The Financial Aid Office will verify your enrollment with the Host institution before applying any aid to your account. This verification cannot take place until the class or program is in session.
- You should be prepared to pay the Host institution's tuition bill up front, if required. The Bursar's Office will not be able to refund any financial assistance until the beginning of the term, when your registration at the Host institution has been verified. If you have already paid the Host institution's tuition bill, the Host institution will refund you directly when they receive payment from the University of Rochester.
- Any awarded financial aid for a subsequent semester at the University of Rochester will not disburse until a transcript from the Host institution is received by the University.
