

Export Controls Information

Publication approval restrictions

Restrictions on publication can destroy the fundamental research exclusion as well as violate University policy on freedom to publish research results. These restrictions may be stated in many places; the Request for Proposal, the cover letters from the sponsors, or the proposed agreements. It is very important that they be identified and addressed, because they are sometimes very difficult to negotiate out and may prevent a project from going forward.

EXAMPLES OF PROBLEMATIC LANGUAGE

Publication Approval

The contractor shall not release to anyone outside the Contractor's organization any unclassified information, regardless of medium (e.g., film, tape, document), pertaining to any part of this contract or any program related to this contract, unless the Contracting Officer has given prior written approval. (except from DFAR 252.204-7000)

There shall be no dissemination or publication of information developed under this contract or contained in the reports to be furnished pursuant to this contract without prior written approval of the Contracting Officer.