Dear Family,

Despite a category 4 hurricane, you made it to my "Fellowship" Todd Play closing show. To my brother, thank you for attending my final theatre production, "One Acts", and experiencing Rochester restaurants.

Your pep talks and mentorship carried me through challenges, and I've emerged stronger. I couldn't have become a more successful version of myself without you.

Dear my parents:

I am so grateful for your understanding and support throughout my university journey. I am looking forward to the future, and thank you for being by my side every step of the way.

Love you all.

Keming Zhang

First of all, I want to give a big THANK YOU to all my family members! Thank you for always being there for me, for spending your time, energy, and love to support me along the way. I'm really lucky to have a family that believes in me even when I sometimes doubt myself. Your trust and support mean more to me than I can put into words. A special thank you to my uncle and aunt, thank you for pushing me, even when I didn't want to hear it. I know that every push, every word, was because you believed I could do better and be better. It wasn't always easy, but it helped me grow. I understand that everyone shows love in different ways, and I'm truly grateful for all of it: the encouragement, the advice, and even the tough love. It's made me who I am today, and I'll always carry that with me. Thank you for everything :)
我爱您们♡.

Mom and Dad,

Thank you for all the support you gave me throughout my 4 years here. I thank you for listening to me rant and explain my finals and projects to you guys, though I know you don't understand it very much. I'm also excited to announce you will no longer be getting requests for lunch money any longer!
