'SHAVE TO SAVE'

Head's Up

LOCKS OF LOVE: Abby DeWitt '15 of Nashua, N.H., reacts as cosmetologist Nicole Schoonmaker of Mane Attraction in Wilson Commons holds DeWitt's newly cut locks during Colleges Against Cancer's "Shave to Save" event in December. As part of the event, cochaired at Rochester by DeWitt, students shaved their heads or donated eight or more inches of hair to support cancer patients undergoing chemotherapy and to raise money for the American Cancer Society.
