INTERFAITH CHAPEL
A Labyrinth Walk

MEDITATIVE MAZE: The Rev. Denise Yarbrough, director of religious and spiritual life in the College (left) and Larry Broser of Brighton, N.Y., walk a labyrinth set up in the Interfaith Chapel this spring. An ancient spiritual practice common to many religious traditions, walking a labyrinth is a form of active meditation. Appointed late last year, Yarbrough introduced the activity this winter to the chapel's programs.
