CELEBRATING ROCHESTER

♥ to ♥

HEARTFELT HIGHLIGHTS: Jared Wallis, Elena Sloman, and Lauren Eisenreich—all first-year master's students at the Eastman School of Music—compare the images they took in a photo booth as part of this year's "I ♥ Eastman Day." The day featured events and activities designed to celebrate the school and to highlight appreciation for those who support its programs. Students in the College took part in similar events on the River Campus.
