

ATHLETICS

Gently Down the Stream

FAIR & FAMOUS: The women's rowing team practices before dawn on the Genesee River on a mid-October morning. The team, coached by John Gaskin, had its start as a club sport 35 years ago. It became a varsity sport in 2009 and finished second in the Liberty League last year.

PHOTOGRAPH BY ADAM FENSTER

