National Champion

FAST TRACK: Kylee Bartlett '19 became Rochester's first national champion since 2006 late this winter, when she won the pentathlon at the NCAA's Division III indoor track and field national championship. Shown here in an early season invitational at RIT, the brain and cognitive sciences major from Williamstown, New York, set a new Rochester record for the five-event competition. She's the second Rochester woman to win a national championship in a multi-event track and field competition. Renee Schmitt Somerville '86 won the national heptathlon championship as a junior. PHOTOGRAPH BY ADAM FENSTER
