

Requirement Term Change

When a student officially declares a program of study, the Academic Progress will default to the recorded requirements based on the student's Matriculation Date. The curriculum requirements may have changed between the Matriculation Date and Declaration Date. A student can update their record to follow the most recent requirements for their program by filling out the form below. It is the student's responsibility to discuss and understand the impact of this change: Consult with your academic department and/or College Advisor.
