- Program dates are provided to participants by the Program Administrators. The sponsoring program will pay for your summer housing during the agreed upon program dates.
 - Current UR students have the option to extend the summer stay – adding days before or after their program dates.
 - Additional nights are the financial responsibility of the student.
 - If you need extra housing, indicate those dates on the sponsored programs application; Residential Life will bill your student account at a weekly rate.

- All summer residents are responsible for reading and abiding by the Sponsored Program Housing Contract as well as University policies and Residential Life policies and procedures.
 - You can find the Standards of Student Conduct by clicking this link, and the Residential Life policies by clicking this link.
- A sponsored program participant may cancel their contract with no penalty by contacting the Office for Residential Life. We will need verification of the change by your Sponsored Program.
- The University is not responsible for your personal property. You should consider obtaining insurance coverage for your personal property.
- Storage facilities are not provided.

CHECK-IN

- Room assignments will be provided at the time of check-in.
 - You will receive an email with information about check-in (location, hours) a few days before your summer program housing begins.
- For Non-UR students and current UR students without a Spring 2024 housing assignment– if you need to arrive on May 20, you must make special arrangements. Email summerhousing@reslife.rochester.edu to coordinate your check-in plans.
- You will receive information for Check-Out procedures closer to the end of your program.

BRIDGE CONTRACT

- UR undergraduate students enrolled for the 2024-2025 academic year, with a room assignment in University housing for the 2024 fall semester, will be given the opportunity to extend their Summer Housing Contract for the period August 10, 2024 – August 22, 2024.
- Students who choose the bridge contract option MUST move from their summer assignment into their fall assignment on August 10th.
 - Students will go through the conduct process and incur an additional financial charge if their belongings are not moved out on August 10.
