I. Mission
The mission of the Genesee Staff Council (GSC) is to facilitate active and direct communication between University staff and senior administration and to provide a forum for input and discussion of issues important to the staff and the University. The Council will be composed of a group of diverse staff from across various University offices and academic departments.

II. Membership
A. Membership is composed of seats allocated to represented districts and one second-year Co-chair. Members shall be elected by peers from within their respective districts to fill the seat(s) for the term.
   i. Members elected in the annual election shall serve for a two-year term effective Labor Day following their election, except as noted elsewhere in the bylaws.
      a. When a new District is created, some inaugural representatives shall serve three-year terms in order to create staggered changes in representation. The number of three-year terms per District shall be half of the total seats (rounded down). Representatives receiving the highest numbers of votes shall serve the three-year terms.
   ii. Members shall have no term limits.
   iii. Composition and number of representatives shall be determined by the Election Committee prior to the beginning of the election period based on district census data.
      a. Should restructuring occur, causing part or all of a department to fall under a different District, that department’s constituents would continue to be considered part of its original District until the next general election. If any Representative is in such a department, they may continue to serve for the original district until the next general election. If they are in the first year of their term when the change occurs, this may result in a vacated seat in the original district at the time of the next election.
   iv. Members who are elected to the council to fill a vacated seat shall serve the remainder of the original two-year term associated with the seat.
   v. Members who are elected council Co-chair shall serve their first year as both a Co-chair and a district representative. In their second year, they shall serve solely as a Co-chair, but may choose to remain as an ex officio member of their original district through the end of their Co-chair term. They shall only cast a vote in the case of a tie.
      a. Should a Co-chair term shorten or lengthen a representative’s District term, the remainder of that term shall be treated as a vacated seat, as outlined in II. A. iv.
