The Warner School of Education at the University of Rochester

2019 Symposium

Forum on Community Schooling

Save the Date!

May 4, 2019, 9 a.m. -12:30 p.m.

East High School

1801 East Main St., Rochester, N.Y.

CUES will host a forum on the role community schools play in addressing academic, social, and emotional needs of students and families. Attendees will choose among different sessions where community leaders will discuss developing partnerships with schools and communities.

East High School will highlight its partner agencies that are seeking to expand into additional school settings in Rochester. Sessions are designed to encourage dialogue and to share best practices across the region.

SESSION TOPICS:

Policy

Driving policy decisions that provide resources that are aligned to school/community needs.

Health & Wellness

Supporting whole-child health to students and community members in partnership with schools.

Community Advocacy

Identifying and engaging grassroots agencies within their communities.

Education

Developing networks of supports with local agencies. We will provide examples of successful community schools in the Rochester City School District.
